Sam: What did you do after school yesterday?

Eri: I went to Grandma's house.

go の過去形

I picked some flowers from our garden and took them to her with my mother's cake.

Sam: Does your grandma like flowers?

Eri: Yes, she does. So my mother said, "Take the flowers in our garden to Grandma."

Sam: Where does your grandma live?

Eri: She lives near my house.

I did my homework, and then I went to Grandma's house.

Sam: I see. What did you do with your grandma?

Eri: We went shopping. After that, we cooked dinner together.

〈go shopping〉買い物に行く

She is good at cooking. I helped her.

Sam: You're kind.

Eri: Thank you. We had dinner and talked a lot. We had a good time yesterday.
